JANET NEWBERRY

Author | Speaker | Love Researcher

I've lived a life of fear and I've found freedom. Now I'm eager to help others map out a journey from fear to freedom, too. After serving in public and private schools for more than 30 years, I've spent the last 10 years researching the power of love and working as an education consultant.

My goal has been to better help children learn by teaching parents and teachers how to create educational environments without fear. I've seen miracles in the lives of children and families when the atmosphere is a culture of love, instead of fear.

My passion has grown and now our work is to help create "love one another" cultures in homes, schools, workplaces, communities and churches.

As a speaker, I love to share some stories from my literal journey in Freedom, our Airstream. Freedom was a full-time home for us for almost three years before my husband Doug and I moved to The Woodlands, TX, in November 2019.

Life on the road offered a great deal of humor! Life on the road has been sacred, too, because in Freedom, I began to see how clearly God was redeeming my fear-full childhood—and inviting me to into a fearless love story instead.

I am not a Bible teacher—but I love Scripture. I don't speak first about Jesus, but I land on Jesus every time—as the only source of transformational love.

My vulnerability welcomes even the most hesitant to lean in and risk trusting the love that meets our real needs. Together we'll laugh, learn, sigh with relief, shed a tear or two, and walk away having experienced the love of God. Everyone always remembers this truth—there is great hope!

SPEAKING TOPICS

My husband, Doug, and I have learned how to live free of fear. And we've learned that choosing love over fear impacts every relationship, every conversation, every area of our lives. All of the topics listed here come from the worldview that love will conquer fear. Every time.

I would love to create an event specific for your needs. Please let me know how I can help you!

Some of the topics I speak on include:

- The problem of FEAR and the solution of LOVE
- 8 discoveries about LOVE that could change your life
- Your Home/Church/Work/School Without Fear
- Contending for Love at Home
- What would LOVE do now?
- Homeschool offers more HOPE than school at home
- Aiming at a New Target
